

Women Leaders Development Programme

📅 Programme Date: October 21, 2026 ⌚ Duration: 12 weeks

Mode of Delivery: Live Online

OVERVIEW

The Women Leaders Development Programme is uniquely designed for senior executives and entrepreneurs who seek to move to the next level in their chosen careers, ascend the ladder with clarity, mastering dynamics and seizing greater management responsibilities.

The Pan-African programme is brought to you by Lagos Business School, PwC Nigeria and GAIA Africa, and features a mix of virtual sessions, interactive workshops, simulations and group activities that will develop the political intelligence, strategic leadership and communication skills for professional success.

Uncover your personal leadership style, harness your career strengths, and gain a clear understanding of your true potential and the roadmap to enable you to excel.

Pan-African elective component

This programme is in 3 strands with a final strand in Kigali, Rwanda, where participants get the opportunity to interact with private, public and third sector leaders and have personal coaching sessions and to develop a pan-African perspective on corporate and public leadership.

This unique experience will undoubtedly set you apart as a true visionary and global leader.

PROGRAMME OBJECTIVES

This programme will:

- Provide an engaging forum for female executives and high-potential women transitioning into senior management and board leadership roles to come together, gain new knowledge from the latest research, and put those concepts into practice.
- Provide sophisticated business and leadership concepts that have immediate and practical applications for the modern woman business leader, allowing her to improve her proficiencies and advance her career.
- Avail participants to better understand and learn how to apply contemporary business theories currently driving their organisation and results while creating a personal plan for professional advancement.
- Establish the beginnings of a lifelong network of pan-African women executives who often face similar decision points and possibilities along their career paths, becoming a rich resource of influential peers.
